Jesus asked, "Do you love me?"

Understanding world religions: Judaism.

John 21

¹⁵ When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." ¹⁶ A second time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." ¹⁷ He said to him the third time, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep."

Deuteronomy 6

⁴ Hear, O Israel: The Lord is our God, the Lord alone. ⁵ You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might.

Mark 12

²⁹ Jesus answered, "The first is 'Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is one; ³⁰ you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.'"

The Five Major World Religions

Week one: Hinduism: Oldest major religion. Began 3,000 BC. The third largest (1 billion people). Began in India. Believe in reincarnation: each soul is to gain more information, moving between hundreds or thousands of lives as plants, animals, or humans. Karma is the sum of the good or bad done in a lifetime & determines if the next life is better or worse than before. Believe in non-violence & are often vegetarian. Believe God is beyond humans cannot be known by humans.

Last Sunday: Buddhism: Began as a reform movement of Hinduism in 500 BC when Siddhartha Gautama became “the enlightened one” (the Buddha). As in Hinduism, Buddhists believe in reincarnation and karma. Nirvana is their ultimate destination. Many do not believe there is a God. Buddhists do not believe in a soul, but instead Nirvana is reached when a person’s “life energy” is released into the universe. Buddhists try to overcome the suffering in the world by separating themselves from desiring for and clinging to the people and the things of the world.
